

Assignment Requirements	Possible Points
6 different types of frogs are identified as well as where they live. Frog matching game has been completed online.	10
A colorful, creative drawing has been created in journal describing at least 5 differences between a frog and a toad.	10
A clear informative paragraph has been written describing the differences between poisonous and non-poisonous frogs and where the poison comes from.	10
Poster has been created on the Glogster website explaining the life cycle of the frog and how it develops and changes from tadpole to adult.	10
Picture of a new type of frog has been printed and a paragraph explaining at least three facts about this frog is complete.	10
TOTAL	50